

NEWSLETTER

This newsletter provides a brief introduction to the Gordon family and provides a rundown of our annual accomplishments. We felt this would be a great way to keep our family up to date and involved in our business since we (as a family) struggle with returning communication lol. Hopefully you can join us for this year's holiday celebrations. Keep a close eye on the website as we will update the schedule while we wrap up planning. As this is our first newsletter, let us bring you up to speed...

CATASHA GORDON

Catasha teaches practical sex education to adults. For the last 11 years, she has taught hundreds of live and online classes centered around the health and pleasure of Black folk in her community, guiding individuals through medical procedures and helping them advocate for their sexual health. In that time frame, she has published six books and has also written articles for Healthline Media. She plans to continue this work for years to come.

BRUCE GORDON

Bruce is in his 13th year at the Oklahoma Dept. of Education as the Optical Network Engineer. He recently completed his CONE Certification, where his team's network model was so unique that it was added to the worldwide curriculum for fiber optic training. Bruce is also a music producer who works closely with other artists. He won first place in the BeatStars Creator Day competition with his smooth transitions and melodic sampling. He has also completed his own project titled Codeword, which you can find on all music streaming platforms.

MALIK GORDON

Malik is also pursuing his career and leaning into his love for music. He graduated from high school and threw himself into his passion (below is his CashApp, in case you forgot to congratulate him on graduating). He has been creating and performing his music for a few years and now has begun traveling to pursue his dreams. Malik will be 21 years old April 1st 2026. We are immensely proud of him and look forward to seeing the fruits of his hard work.
